

U.S. Planes Sink Cambodian Ships

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. war planes sank three Cambodian navy patrol craft and crippled four others to prevent attempts to take captive U.S. merchant ship crewmen from the Cambodian mainland, the Pentagon announced today.

A Pentagon spokesman also said U.S. aircraft had been receiving small arms fire from the Cambodian boats for several hours before the American planes struck.

The captured ship, the Mayaguez, is anchored off the island of Koh Tang, some 30 miles from the Cambodian mainland.

Pentagon spokesman Joseph Laitin read the following statement to newsmen:

"Beginning at 8:30 p.m. (EDT) yesterday evening, there were indications that the Cambodians appeared to be attempting to move captured U.S. crewmen from the ship and from the island of Koh Tang to the mainland. After giving warning, U.S. aircraft began efforts to block this movement.

"Three Cambodian patrol craft were destroyed, about four others were damaged and immobilized. One boat succeeded in reaching Kompong Som.

"U.S. aircraft had been receiving small arms fire from such boats for several hours prior to this action."

State Spending Highlights

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Here are highlights of the $10.68 billion two-year state budget approved 58-39 Tuesday by the House and sent to the Senate.

TAXES AND REVENUE: Majority Democrats contend the budget is balanced with "reasonable revenue estimates" and no new or increased taxes. Democratic leaders increased Gov. James A. Rhodes' General Revenue Fund income projections nearly $140 million and also upped estimates of federal subsidies.

They gave the budget office authority to alter the monthly schedule of higher education subsidies and state retirement benefits, if necessary to increase the cash flow during "lean" months.

EDUCATION: $502 million in new money is provided for primary and secondary education to finance a new "equal yield" state school aid program and special programs.

HIGHER EDUCATION: An overall appropriation of $1.054 billion is proposed, amounting to an increase of $263 million, or 33 per cent above current spending.

The University of Cincinnati would get a $20.5 million special appropriation, contingent on it becoming a full-fledged state university by July 1, 1976. Ohio University would get a $3.6 million special subsidy to prevent it from defaulting on bonds.

The Democratic plan would continue a four-year-old freeze on tuition. Rhodes' budget would have given university trustees authority to lift the freeze.

WELFARE: An $11.25 million increase in Aid to Dependent Children benefits is provided for what Rep. James W. Rankin, D-25 Cincinnati, called a "giant step forward." The 21 per cent increase over current levels would raise average maximum monthly payments for a family of four from $209 to $253. Rhodes' budget would have maintained the current payment schedule.

MENTAL HEALTH: The bill calls for a $19.1 million increase over the present budget, which is $57.1 million under what Rhodes wanted. Democrats say the package would be enhanced by federal subsidies passed directly to institutions.

TRANSPORTATION AND CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS: Requests totaling $1.3 billion were removed from the budget for separate consideration. The deletion accounts for the bulk of difference between the $12.2 billion Rhodes budget and the $10.68 billion approved.

LEGISLATIVE INTENT: Unprecedented language in the bill spells out in detail budgetary goals for state agencies. Republicans claim the language is a partisan intrusion into territory normally reserved for the executive branch.

STATE PAY: A pay bill section calls for increases for state civil service employees ranging from 20 cents to $1 hourly, or a 10 per cent maximum if that is higher. The raises would not go into effect until Oct. 1.

Weather

Increasing cloudiness today, high, mid 70s. Showers tonight, low, low 50s. Showers likely Thursday near 70. Probability of precipitation, 10 per cent today, 30 per cent tonight and 60 per cent tomorrow. Temperatures Tuesday were: high, 70; low, 46.

At the same time, Laitin announced that the destroyer escort Holt had arrived in the area off Koh Tang island, the first U.S. warship to reach the scene.

Reports reaching the Pentagon said an AC130 gunship and A7 attack aircraft keeping watch over the merchant ship held captive by the Cambodians struck the Cambodian ships with 20-millimeter gunfire and possibly other weapons.

Meanwhile, it was learned that U.S. Air Force warplanes flying out of Thailand have been ordered to prevent any effort by the Cambodians to move the Mayaguez from its present position.

The fate of the Mayaguez' 39-man crew was not known. There were reports Tuesday that Caucasians were seen being taken to the island from the Mayaguez in fishing-type boats.

U.S. planes have been keeping a constant aerial watch on the Mayaguez, awaiting further action orders from President Ford.

Pentagon sources said about 1,000 Marines had been flown from U.S. bases in the Philippines and on Okinawa to the U.S. base at Utapao in southern Thailand. The move was made in the face of Thai government objections.

There was no indication as to what happened to the crew of the Cambodian boats, one of which was identified as a gunboat.

There were about seven Cambodian craft in the area of the Mayaguez at the time the three vessels were destroyed, sources said.

There was no evidence that any U.S. aircraft were hit by gunfire during the incident, the sources said.

Premier Kukrit Pramoj today gave the United States until Thursday morning to remove 800 U.S. Marines he said were landed in Thailand today without his permission. The Marines were sent to back up President Ford's demand for release of an American freighter held by Cambodia's new Communist government.

Kukrit told newsmen he would take "drastic action" if the United States did not withdraw the Marines from the territory of its only remaining ally on the Southeast Asian mainland.

Kukrit said Thailand does not intend to be drafted into U.S. preparations to take the ship back by force.

The premier delivered his ultimatum to U.S. Charge d'Affaires Edward E. Masters.

Neither the Thai government nor the U.S. Embassy in Bangkok was informed in advance of the Marines' arrival before dawn today. On Tuesday, Kukrit had announced his opposition to their coming.

Fifty students carrying anti-American posters flocked to the Bangkok airport to await the arrival of the new American ambassador, Charles S. Whitehouse, who was due today from the United States.

The National Student Center, which led the uprising that ended the military dictatorship 19 months ago, accused the United States of using the Cambodian seizure of the freighter Mayaguez as an excuse to intervene again in Indochina.

Thai communications sources reported that the Cambodians seized another foreign freighter, the Eastern Grand, registered in Panama, today but released it after nearly two hours. The sources said the ship was intercepted near the island of Panjang, about 85 miles off the Cambodian and South Vietnamese coasts.

The Eastern Grand, like the Mayaguez, was en route from Hong Kong to Bangkok, the sources said. No other information was available.

It was the fourth foreign freighter reported to have been menaced by Cambodian gunboats since the Communist takeover in Phnom Penh. One of the others, another Panamanian, was reported seized on May 7 but was released after 36 hours.

U.S. planes kept watch on the 10,485-ton freighter Mayaguez in the Gulf of Thailand. It was reported lying to near Cambodia's Koh Tang island, 30 miles off the Cambodian coast. The ship, manned by a crew of 39, was captured Monday en route from Hong Kong to Thailand with a cargo of military and civilian freight.

Pentagon sources said the aircraft carrier Coral Sea, escorting destroyers and at least two other destroyers were en route to the Gulf of Thailand.

The Thai Foreign Ministry announced that 800 Marines arrived before dawn at the U.S. Air Force's big Utapao base on the Thai coast 120 miles west of the Cambodian border.

Thai Premier Kukrit Pramoj, who said on Tuesday that he would not permit Thailand to be the springboard for a military attempt to get the Mayaguez back, told newsmen a few

Ford Steps Up Military Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration had little expectation today of a diplomatic end to the Cambodian ship crisis, hoping instead for a Communist cave-in to the implied threat of U.S. military action.

President Ford stepped up the pressure on the Phnom Penh regime by calling a National Security Council meeting late Tuesday night, the second NSC session in 12 hours. The council broke up early today after an hour and three-quarters.

U.S. Marines were flown into Thailand and Adm. James L. Holloway, chief of naval operations, said "The Navy is ready. We are prepared" to retake the American merchant ship, the Mayaguez, seized by Cambodia on Monday.

Administration sources said diplomatic efforts primarily through China were being used to emphasize Ford's determination to get the vessel back rather than negotiate a settlement.

"We're not sure Peking would want to help and even if it did we're not sure the Khmer Rouge would listen," one State Department official said. So, he explained, the diplomatic channels are being used simply to tell Phnom Penh that "we want the ship back, unconditionally."

This feeling was reinforced to newsmen traveling Tuesday in Missouri with Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. They learned that Ford has refused to consider any deal with Cambodia.

Kissinger, it was learned, would be astonished if the President followed the method used by the United States to obtain release of the spy ship Pueblo from North Korea in 1969. That involved a confession, later recanted, that the Navy ship had been spying. There have been no allegations that the Mayaguez was spying.

State Department sources said Ford and Kissinger are maneuvering in hopes that Cambodia will simply let the ship go.

"If they see we're not fooling around and that there is little anyone can do to stop us, maybe they'll stop fooling around," one official said.

On the other hand, the sources said, the administration isn't afraid to use force, particularly since the administration views the Cambodian action as a flagrant violation of international law.

But they denied Ford and Kissinger have welcomed the incident as an excuse to show American strength following the U.S. inability to stop the Communist-led take-overs of Cambodia and South Vietnam.

"We don't have to prove our guts," one source said, asking that he not be identified. "If we hit them its because they were too stupid to realize what they had done."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Majority Democrats have won House approval for an admittedly "optimistic" $10.68 billion budget, rejecting Republican warnings that the massive spending

Stans Fined For Miscues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans was fined $5,000 today for five admitted violations of federal election laws while Richard M. Nixon's 1972 presidential campaign manager.

U.S. District Judge John Lewis Smith said that he found "the end of justice would best be served by a monetary penalty" and therefore was imposing no jail sentence. Stans could have been sentenced to one year in jail on each of the five counts.

"I am very deeply sorry that I caused these matters to come to the attention of the court," said Stans. "I want to assure your honor I did not intentionally violate any law."

Stans concluded by asking for "understanding and leniency."

Stans, a career accountant, was the third former member of Nixon's Cabinet to be sentenced in the post-Watergate era.

He had been charged with five counts, all misdemeanors. In two of the counts he was charged with violating the provisions of the law requiring reporting of political contributions; the other counts were for accepting illegal corporate contributions.

plan is underfinanced.

The budget was approved on the House floor 58-39 late Tuesday night and sent to the Senate, which must approve it by June 30 for the state to continue to pay its bills.

"We have met our commitment to the taxpayers of this state," declared Speaker Pro Tem Barney Quilter, D-47 Toledo, shortly before the 11:30 p.m. vote. "We accept whatever political liabilities this budget carries."

The Senate planned a floor vote today on a new "equalization" state school aid formula that would be funded largely through the $502 million in new money provided by the proposed budget.

The revamped Democratic appropriation bill also includes significant increases for higher education and welfare while cutting back on Gov. James A. Rhodes' funding requests for most other state agencies. It calls for no new or increased taxes.

The document also contains controversial statements of "legislative intent" outlining budget goals for state departments, an area generally reserved for the executive branch.

Democrats agreed to one major Republican amendment, removing language from the bill that would have prohibited use of state or local funds to subsidize intercollegiate athletics in Ohio.

Republican discontent focused on devices used by majority leaders to balance the package, particularly a nearly $140 million increase in Rhodes' projection of income from general fund sources.

"Your costs are soaring enormously in this budget and in a time of recession and economic difficulty in the country," said minority finance leader Frederick N. Young, R-38

Dayton. "This is hardly the time to do it."

"Estimates in this budget are more optimistic than those of Gov. Rhodes and less optimistic than those of former Gov. John J. Gilligan," acknowledged Finance Chairman Myrl H. Shoemaker, D-88 Bourneville. "It is not a budget of frills, of spending for spending's sake."

GOP legislators failed to win House support for a series of amendments to increase appropriations for mental health, state prisons and mass transit.

Democrats won a propaganda victory when the governor abandoned the tax play, leaving his $12.2 billion budget proposal with a $260 million deficit.

Ironically, the only real surprise involved a Republican amendment offered independently of the minority leadership and debated by two Democratic roommates.

It started when Rep. Robert E. Netzel, R-81 Laura, tore a phony gag from his mouth and asked Democrats to delete the ban on state and local aid to college athletic programs.

Rep. Robert A. Jaskulski, D-11 Garfield Heights, architect of the language, argued: "We've been told

Mary Horst Awarded Local Scholarship

Mary Lou Horst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Horst, Route 2, has been awarded the Annette Phelps Lincoln Scholarship given by the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs and sponsored by the Monday Club of Circleville.

Founded in 1890 The Monday Club, a charter member of the Ohio Federation and a per capita paying club, was entitled to present one applicant for Federation consideration.

This scholarship of $500 was available to any worthy, young student for use in securing an education beyond high school in the teaching and library professions. The scholarship must be used in an Ohio college or university of the student's choice.

Miss Horst has chosen Ohio Northern where she had an early acceptance. She was selected from many Ohio applicants. She will graduate from Circleville High School fourth in a class of 244. Her record from the 9th through the 12th grades has been all A's except for one B in an elective subject.

Mary has had time, in addition to working at home and being a part-time waitress, to participate in school activities. She has been identified with the following: Girls' Athletic Association, Girls' Service Club, National Honor Society, English Merit Society, Red and Black staff member, secretary of the senior class, Homecoming Attendant, and recipient of the DAR award for Good Citizenship.

IMPROVES COMMUNICATIONS — Sgt. Leroy Hawks of the Circleville Police Department operates the Law Enforcement Automated Data System (LEADS) machine that Police Chief Robert Temple says is a "step forward" in improving communications with other law agencies. The machine, actually an automatic typewriter and receiver, is directly circuited with departments in nine states and indirectly with all 50 states and foreign countries. It is also connected with the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) computer banks in Washington D.C. and will be tied in with the London Criminal File division in the Bureau of Criminal Investigation. Chief Temple, whose Department had been receiving teletype messages from LEADS machines operated by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department and Post 65 of the Ohio State Highway Patrol, said he greatly appreciated all the service and help the other departments had given Police.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved ahead today, continuing to resist the negative effect of uncertainties posed by the Cambodian seizure of a U.S. cargo ship on Monday.

The opening Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up nearly a point, and gainers took a 5-3 lead over losers on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts said one influence in the market's favor was the recent downtrend in interest rates.

Today's prices included Union Carbide, up 3/4 at 64 1/4; Polaroid, 3/4 higher at 32; Richardson-Merrill, up 1 1/2 at 24 1/2, and Alcan Aluminum, unchanged at 22 1/2.

Judge Sentences 6, Grants Probation

Six persons were sentenced and one was granted a motion for shock probation early this morning in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

Daniel Lee Sprouse was granted a motion he filed for early release and suspension of further execution of a sentence he received on Feb. 14.

On that date, he was convicted of violation of probation and an earlier imposed sentence of two concurrent terms of 1-5 years each were reimposed.

He was originally charged with breaking and entering and grand larceny and was serving the sentence in the Mansfield Reformatory for Men. The court, in granting the motion for shock probation, extended Sprouse's probation until Feb. 6, 1978.

Two men arraigned on Monday for two counts each of breaking and entering and grand theft appeared this morning for sentencing. Duane Lee Henderson, Hilliard, and William Clement Buck, Delaware, pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the American Legion and the Goodchild Construction Company, both on Route 23.

Judge William Ammer sentenced each man to prison terms. Henderson was ordered committed to the Ohio State Reformatory for Men at Mansfield for two concurrent terms of 1-5 years each on the breaking and entering and theft at the American Legion and two concurrent terms of 1-5 years each of the breaking and entering and theft at Goodchild's. The court further ordered that the second two terms would run consecutively with the first two.

The same sentencing was imposed on Buck except Ammer ordered him committed to the Ohio State Penitentiary because of a prior record.

Both men are currently on probation from Union County and will be returned to that jurisdiction for violation of probation hearings.

Charles Jackson, Route 1, Stoutsville, appeared on charges of burglary and grand theft. The court sentenced him to a term of 2-15 years at the Mansfield Reformatory on the burglary charge and 2-5 years on the grand theft charge. The court further ordered that the two sentences would run concurrently.

Three charges of passing bad checks brought a prison sentence to Robert A. Elrick, Route 2, Ashville. Elrick was sentenced to three terms of six months to five years each at the Mansfield Reformatory. Judge Ammer ordered the terms to run concurrently.

Boyd Marcum, who had previously entered a guilty plea to forgery, appeared for sentencing. The court suspended a sentence of 1-5 years at the Mansfield Reformatory and placed Marcum on probation for three years. The man is presently on probation from Ross County and will be returned there for a violation of probation hearing.

A final appearance this morning was made by Sue Luchetti, Cleveland. She was charged with possession of a hypodermic and furnishing a hypodermic to Dennis Gaul who was in the Pickaway County Jail at the time.

Judge Ammer sentenced her to one year at the Ohio State Reformatory for Women at Marysville on the possession charge and 1-5 years on the furnishing charge. He then suspended the two sentences and placed Miss Luchetti on probation for three years.

Mrs. Charles Jolliffe Speaker For Community Services Luncheon

MRS. CHARLES (BETTY) JOLLIFFE

By MARION SINES
Herald Staff Writer

Mrs. Charles (Betty) Jolliffe was guest speaker for the Tuesday luncheon meeting of Pickaway County Community Services in the Parish Hall of St. Philip's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Jolliffe said the two main volunteer services providing invaluable contributions to Berger Hospital are the Red Cross Volunteers and Hospital Guilds. There are 34 active volunteers who served 3,369 hours during the past year. They fed and bathed patients, directed visitors,

County Youth Accidentally Shoots Self

Seventeen-year-old Terry Abernathy, Mt. Sterling, is listed in good condition at the Madison County Hospital, after sustaining an accidental self-inflicted gunshot wound, 9:25 p.m. Tuesday.

The London City Police notified Pickaway County Sheriff's Authorities of the shooting incident, 11 p.m. Tuesday.

Abernathy was walking along a path near the Hartford Conley residence in Era, headed for a target practice area when he stepped in a hole. Abernathy fell to the ground causing the .22 calibre automatic rifle to discharge with the bullet going through his left forearm.

He went to the Conley residence requesting them to call for an ambulance and informed them he had accidentally shot himself.

The gun was borrowed from Gary Caldwell.

served as typists and a number of other ways in caring for patients' needs.

The guilds have purchased many necessary pieces of equipment with the latest acquisition a fetal monitor costing about $8,000. It informs the obstetrician of the baby's condition during birth making it possible to keep the baby alive in critical situations. The guilds are now considering decorating six rooms as the next project.

Mrs. Jolliffe said Pickaway Ross Vocational School is providing personnel who aid in medical, obstetrical, dietary and laboratory services.

In January a chaplain service, under the direction of Dr. Eugene Mendenhall, was established. Other services established in the past few years include Prenatal, Family Planning and Well Child Clinics.

Mrs. Jolliffe, director of nursing at the hospital, graduated from Winchester Memorial Hospital, Winchester, Va. and Winchester Hospital School of Anesthesia, where she was chief nurse anesthetist for 11 years. She spent one year at Mary Washington College at the University of West Virginia and is past director of nursing service at Shenandoah County Memorial Hospital in Woodstock, Va.

She discussed the emergency service at the hospital and said it would be expanded with the new facilities in the new building. There is a need for a room where therapists may work and many more beds, including private rooms.

There are 26 Registered Nurses on the staff at Berger Hospital and they know all their patients as individuals and can discuss them with Mrs. Jolliffe and thus provide more personal service.

He said his government did not want the Marines to come and he had received no communication from Washington about them. A foreign ministry spokesman predicted that his government would protest strongly to Washington and that there would be anti-American demonstrations.

There was speculation that the Bangkok government would also demand that the United States speed up the withdrawal of the 25,000 American troops still stationed in Thailand. The United States has agreed to take out 5,500 before the end of June and the rest within a year.

The Pentagon announced that a U.S. military helicopter with 23 persons aboard crashed Tuesday in northeast Thailand, 35 miles west of the U.S. Air Force Base at Nakon Phanom. The fate of the four crewmen and 19 passengers was not immediately known, but it was apparent from the location of the crash that it had no connection with the Mayaguez crisis.

During a volunteer recognition tea held Tuesday at the Red Cross more than 100 adult volunteers were honored for 10,284 hours of service given residents of Circleville and Pickaway County through the local chapter.

Since the volunteer service was permanently organized in 1962 under the chairmanship of the late Bianca Wylie, several hundred volunteers have donated many thousands of hours of their time at Berger Hospital, Chillicothe VA Hospital, nursing homes and in chapter programs including Blood Program, Nursing Service, First Aid and Water Safety and Production Service. Without the willing help of the volunteers Red Cross would not exist.

The Tuesday meeting was organized by Amelia Garner, Millie Conrad, Margaret Dean, Margie DeLong, and Ruth Tammany, with help from all the ladies who meet at the chapter once a month for sewing.

Margaret Dean received her 14 year pin and a certificate for 569 hours of service in 1974. Since she started with the chapter in 1960 she has accumulated 6,227 hours. Elizabeth Hutchison received a certificate for 328 hours during the past year. She has been a volunteer for six years and has accumulated 1,327 hours.

Pauline Huston has the longest tenure in years, 21, having started serving at the Bloodmobile in the early years. She has a total of 2112 hours of service which also includes VA Hospital and chapter production. Patty Kirkwood has been a volunteer for 17 years and Georgia Walker, 13 years. Both serve regularly at the Bloodmobile.

The following persons were honored for having over 200 hours of service in 1974:

Margaret Dean, 569; Norma Toland, 212; Marie Gibson, 293; Alvin Recobs, 205; Elizabeth Hutchison, 328; Pat Clark, 211; Don Mason, 221; Frances Pritt, 295; Rich Justus, 200; Mary Poling, 219; Marilyn Fausnaugh, 233; Jennie Burnett, 248; Kathryn Schleich, 206; Helen Good, 224; Robert Eccard, 303; Delores North, 220; Carol Jacobs, 280.

Refuge For Runaways

DEAR ABBY: Because I read in your column about that toll-free number, which allows runaway kids to call to let their parents know they are O.K., I re-established contact with my parents, went home and had the most wonderful Easter in my life. (I'm a 19-year-old boy who dropped out of school and hit the road 15 months ago.)

Will you please run that item again, Abby?

LUCKY IN ILLINOIS
DEAR LUCKY: With pleasure. Runaways, dial 1-800-231-6946. An operator will telephone your parents anywhere in the U.S. and convey a message from you. ("I'm alive, don't worry about me" is typical.)

There will be no lecturing or counseling. Your call will not be traced, and the only question you will be asked: "Do you need anything?" If you do, you'll be told where you can obtain it for free. No attempt will be made to bring you home, regardless of your age.

Runaways, please forget the past and call that toll-free number now. Let somebody know that you are alive. You will sleep better tonight, and so will they.

P.S. This wonderful program originated in Texas and has been adopted by 37 states! It's staffed by volunteers, including some grateful runaways who have come home.

DEAR ABBY: I recently met a very attractive man. We hit it off immediately, and I could get serious about him, but he told me something

Bumpy Road Ahead For State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A lack of money and the rising cost of asphalt indicates there may be a bumpy road ahead for Ohio motorists.

It's this way:
—In 1973, the Ohio Division of Highways repaved 1,547 miles of state roads.

—In 1974, it repaved 675 miles.

—In 1975, it will repave 193 miles.

Transportation Director Richard Jackson said there was no way the Department of Transportation can spend the $44 million for resurfacing in what division deputies have listed as "absolute must" projects.

Instead of $44 million, he said, the department will have about $2 million to spend for resurfacing two-lane roads and $3.5 million for four-lane highways, unless some federal money is forthcoming.

Thomas M. Major, deputy director of operations for DOT, said it will be the third year in a row that highway maintenance has been cut. Even 1973, when $19 million was spent, was a low year, Major said. Previously, DOT spent between $20 and $25 million annually for resurfacing.

The department tries to rotate maintenance projects.

"Most of our highways should be resurfaced every seven to 10 years," he said.

Major said 1976 could be crucial if the maintenance program is not beefed up.

"Saying that next year the highway may turn into gravel is a kind of exaggerated example, but the problem is serious," he said.

Harry Myers, chief engineer for programming said the state is hopeful it will get $10 million in federal matching funds for this year's resurfacing program.

"That would bring us up to $20 million for resurfacing this year, but it would have to be spent on four-lane highways," he said.

"We think we will get it," Myers said.

He said the federal government was rather particular where the money goes and that's why it was requested for four-lane roads, with federal officials call adequate highways.

Progress In Electronics

Electronic miniaturization already has made tremendous strides in compacting huge power sources into small areas. One need only compare some of the earlier computers with today's models to note the effect of increasing improvements in miniaturization even in this already sophisticated area.

This degree of sophistication is but the beginning. A well-developed field of electronic exploration — cryogenics and superconducting devices — promises a revolution in electrical transmission with wide applications.

Superconducting devices are those which eliminate virtually all resistance to electric current. They operate by exposing the conductor to extremely cold temperatures, in the realm of 450 degrees Fahrenheit below zero.

At that temperature, electrical resistance is almost non-existent. The better conductors such as copper or aluminum show a drop of 10,000 to 100,000 in resistance between room temperature and absolute zero. But superconductors such as tin and lead show an even sharper drop in resistance at very low temperatures.

There are two significant advantages to superconducting devices. One is the greater efficiency in electric current transmission by elimination of resistance. A magnet capable of producing a magnetic field of 100,000 gauss, which is 200,000 times the magnetic field of earth, absorbs 3,000 kilowatts of electric energy if operated at room temperatures. But a cryomagnet would require only 120 kilowatts, and a superconducting magnet would need none.

Greatly reduced space requirements are the second advantage. An ordinary copper wire carrying a 200-ampere current is 1/2-inch in diameter. A superconducting wire need only be 1-100th of an inch. Translating this into practical usage means a city's electric power substation would be reduced to the size of a small office.

One of the first applications of such super-magnets was in the weight-conscious space program, and much of the research has been supported by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. But the possibilities for commercial, residential and industrial uses of superconductors are endless.

This is a product of space activities which promises to pay dividends for future generations. More efficient distribution of power is another way of holding down rising energy costs and an excellent reason for developing new electronic sciences as rapidly as possible.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, May 14, the 134th day of 1975. There are 231 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1787, a convention met in Philadelphia to draw up the U.S. Constitution.

On this date —
In 1907, Anna Jarvis arranged for a special church service in Philadelphia to honor mothers — an idea that spread and became Mother's Day.

In 1940, German bombers razed much of the Dutch city of Rotterdam in World War II.

In 1942, also in World War II, the U.S. Congress established the WAACs — the Women's Auxiliary Army Corps.

In 1948, Britain ended its rule in Palestine, and the independent state of Israel was proclaimed.

Ten years ago: A little corner of an English meadowside at Runnymede — where the idea of constitutional government first started — was dedicated in memory of the late President John Kennedy.

Five years ago: Henry Ford announced that he had turned down a Soviet proposal that the Ford Motor Co. build a truck plant in the Soviet Union.

One year ago: Queen Elizabeth II nominated the Archbishop of York, Dr. Donald Coggan, to succeed the retiring Michael Ramsey as Archbishop of Canterbury and head of the Church of England.

Today's birthday: Opera singer Patrice Munsell is 50.

Thought for today: There is no education like adversity — Benjamin Disraeli, British Prime Minister, 1804-1881.

Bicentennial footnote: It was 200 years ago today that Benedict Arnold led a Colonial expedition from Ticonderoga, N.Y. against the British at St. John's in Canada. St. John's was occupied by Arnold on May 16.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

For the past few months I notice that food sometimes gets stuck in my neck. If I wait awhile, it disappears. Can you explain this?

Mr. E. D., Wisc.

Dear Mr. D.:

The fact that your difficulty is not constant suggests that there is some temporary interference with the free passage of food from the mouth, through the esophagus and into the stomach.

The additional fact that you have been disturbed by this for three months certainly would indicate the need to study the problem.

There are any number of conditions that might produce the symptom you describe. One particular condition is known as a "diverticula" of the esophagus. This is a small pouch extending from the wall of the esophagus. The result is that food can become trapped in it and remain until it is emptied.

This, of course, is speculative on my part, since so many other abnormalities can exist. No part of the body lends itself to more rapid and definitive diagnosis than does the esophagus and the entrance to the stomach.

X-rays, with barium, are usually done first. If any question must be answered, a tube (esophagoscope) can be inserted into the esophagus to study every part of it. Cultures, tissue studies and photographs can be made through this instrument.

Do not delay seeing your doctor — not out of fear, but rather because of the sensible need to find the origin of your problem.

I am almost totally recovered from facial paralysis. My right eye doesn't close and I constantly get cinders in it. Is there anything that can be done until I fully recover?

Mr. H.Z., Okla.

Dear Mr. Z.:

One of the characteristics of facial paralysis (Bell's palsy) is that there is a diminished sensitivity of the cornea of the eye. Normally, as soon as a foreign body gets into the eye, an excess flow of tears usually washes it out.

In your case, the protective reflex is not completely restored.

Eyeglasses alone are not completely protective. Wind-carrying dust particles can enter the eye through the side. For this reason, special shields are easily attached to the sides of the glasses, thus preventing injury by particles.

These shields can be found in any optometrist's shop. A solution called "Artificial Tears" can be used to irrigate the eyes.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Food prices, the pervasiveness of the recession and the matter of hospital beds. Here are some commentaries on these subjects that might change your views or upset some of your favorite biases.

—James T. Schmuck, president, U.S. Grocery Products, a division of Del Monte Corp., in a talk before a meeting of the Conference Board, Los Angeles, a few days ago:

"Even with anticipated levels of consumption, better weather, and improved economic conditions, I can't foresee a general decline in food prices. There's no way we can have cheaper food when most production costs are on the rise.

"Labor costs, which account for about 49 per cent of the cost of producing and marketing food, will be up this year on the order of last year's rise — approaching 10 per cent.

"The food industry also will be paying more for energy, transportation, packaging, and other materials. Complying with government regulations on environment and occupational health and safety will further drive up food production costs without increasing productivity.

"All these added costs will have to be passed on to the consumer.

"Retail food prices — along with consumer prices as a whole — will continue to rise through next year. But with the easing of inflation, the rise won't be so sharp as during the past couple of years."

—The Bank of America, in its current edition of "Focus on the U.S. Economy — 1975":

"Bank of America's most recent market survey confirms that this recession has adversely affected more people than any previous one since the depression of the 1930s.

"Yet, as in all post-World War Two recessions, the great majority have been left largely unscathed in over-all economic terms.

"About 30 per cent of all households have been forced to curtail their expenditures significantly during this recession, compared with 15 to 25 per cent in previous recessions.

"The remaining households apparently haven't broken stride economically throughout the recession."

—John Alexander McMahon, president of the American Hospital Association, in a statement disputing the contention that the country has too many hospital beds:

"There are 120,000 fewer beds in the nation's 7,127 hospitals today than existed in 1960, and the number has declined uninterrupted since 1965.

"The total number of beds in 1973 was 1.54 million, which was below the 1.66 million beds in 1960 and far below the peak of 1.7 million in 1965. In addition, the beds available today must serve 210 million persons as compared to 181 million in 1960.

"The United States has far fewer hospital beds to serve its population than many other industrialized nations."

Steel Industry Increasing Capacity

NEW YORK (AP) — America's steel industry plans to increase its production capacity 8.5 per cent from the present 152-153 million tons to 165-166 million tons by 1977, reports 33 Magazine.

The magazine also reports that steep price rises are in store.

The publication attributes the capacity decision to strong steel demand, profit levels which have become more acceptable and favorable short-to-medium term future prospects.

Let JFK Sleep In Peace

By JIM BISHOP

The forensic nitpickers will not allow John F. Kennedy to rest. They disinter his body for profit, magnifying what they call the "one bullet theory" and why the President's head flew backward as his brain exploded, if, as they argue, he was hit from the front.

It's a shabby business and I regret that I permitted myself to be dragged into rebutting the specious arguments of the lightweights. I surmise that half of America cannot believe that the death of our handsome President was carried off by one young man and a cheap rifle.

Recently, Lyndon Johnson was resurrected as a doubter. I had plenty of opportunity to discuss the assassination with the President because it was he who opened all the government doors for me to write a book called, "The Day Kennedy Was Shot."

Johnson said that he "surmised" if Lee Harvey Oswald had any outside help it had to come from Cuba. He had no knowledge, no evidence to buttress his suspicion, but he knew that Oswald tried twice to get a visa to Mexico and thence to Cuba. Both countries turned him down.

Oswald was disenchanted with Communism. In Moscow, he expected, as an ex-U.S. Marine, to be acclaimed a people's hero. The Russians put him in a mental institution. The best they offered him was a factory job in Minsk, where he met and married Marina.

Gordon Shanklin, head of the Dallas bureau of the F.B.I., is probably the best-informed man on Lee Harvey Oswald in the country. Mr. Shanklin had an F.B.I. man in the local Dallas Communist cell. The Reds in Dallas did not want Oswald to join, and Oswald scorned them. "I am not a Communist," he told friends. "I'm a Marxist. There's a difference."

There is. Marxism is a tightly disciplined practice in which the party and the state are all — the individual is nothing. Communism, as practiced in Russia, Yugoslavia and Cuba, is radical socialism, nothing more.

On TV, Gerardo Rivera referred to me as a supporter of the Warren Commission Report. Untrue. They spent a year questioning witnesses. I spent 4½ years pinpointing everything that happened every minute of that day in Dallas. I support my findings.

Cartha DeLoach, assistant director of the F.B.I., and James Rowley, then chief of the Secret Service, permitted me to see their files and to question any agent at any time. They had nothing to hide, except their shame at losing a President.

What a beautiful runaway bestseller I would have had if I could have shown that someone other than Lee Harvey Oswald was involved. When I offered to debate District Attorney Jim Garrison of New Orleans about his silly theories, he refused to respond.

Nor could I find evidence that Oswald hated Kennedy. To an unbalanced young man who had failed at everything, the Presidential parade passing his factory meant no more than an opportunity for imperishable fame.

He built his fortress of cartons on the sixth floor. At lunch, when the schoolbook clerks were out front waiting for the parade, he was leaning on a 6th floor windowsill. The first shot, through a V-shaped elm tree, hit the street near the car. It broke into flashing fragments.

Mrs. Donald Baker heard the shot, saw the spray and ducked. On the far side of the car, James Tague stood beside his automobile a block away and felt as though his cheek had been stung. He was bleeding in a half dozen parts of his face.

Bill Greer was the President's driver. He told me he was doing 11 m.p.h. when he heard the crack. In such circumstances, he had been trained to step on the accelerator. His foot slipped and he hit the brake. The car slowed and slowed.

There was no tree between Oswald and the car now. He slipped the bolt, took careful aim, and caught the President in the right shoulder strap muscles. The flesh only slowed the bullet, traveling at 1,904 feet per second. Governor Connally, turning to see if Kennedy was hurt, caught the tumbling steel in the back. It splintered ribs, went through the wrist on his thigh, and into the leg.

The third shot was corrective. It caught Kennedy behind the right ear, exploded 5¼ inches of his skull into the air and died behind the left eye. There is no way the shot could have come from anywhere but behind and above the President. There was no shot from front or side.

I would suggest that Mrs. Onassis and Senator Kennedy could appoint a committee of forensic, nonpolitical experts to go over all the X-rays, all the 35 millimeter photos and movies, and give the American people a report which would permit John F. Kennedy to sleep in peace. . .

36 Area Residents Visit Nashville, Grand Ole Opry

Thirty-six passengers boarded a bus in Circleville Friday morning for a trip to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the Grand Ole Opry, escorted by Mrs. Fannie Brooks of Route 3, Circleville. Members of the tour were from Lancaster, Mt. Sterling, Williamsport, Stoutsville, Ashville, Circleville and Columbus.

The first stop was a coffee break in Florence, Ky., and then into Louisville for lunch arriving in Nashville at 6:30 p.m.

Saturday morning was occupied touring interesting places in Nashville. It was said that Ohio has the most visitors of any other state to the Opry.

They saw the school where Fannie Rose, later Dinah Shore, attended. They stood on the stage of the old Opry House where all the old stars of country music have performed.

Nashville has over 700 churches and several colleges with Vanderbilt the largest. The city has a population of 750,000 and the printing business is first in industry and music is second.

The visitors drove past the Parthenon building, a complete replica of an Athenian temple. They saw the walnut carving of "The Last Supper." The Upper Room Chapel expresses in its architecture a message of prayer and devotion.

They then saw the recording studio where such performers as Linn Anderson recorded "Rose Garden." Johnny Cash, Charley Rich, Pat Boone and many others made recordings in the room costing over one million dollars.

A drive down the road called Granny White Road showed the passengers where Lucinda White cared for many of the wounded soldiers during the War of 1812. Her crude little home still stands.

They drove past the home of such stars as Eddie Arnold, the richest man in country music business by the most conservative; Porter and Dolly Wagner, Hank Williams, Tex Ritter and Minnie Pearl. Next was The Hermitage, home of Andrew Jackson.

After a short rest and dinner the group went to the Opry. Some of the performers were Dell Wood, The Four Guys, Stu Phillips, Jimmy Dickens and Archie Campbell.

Making the tour were: Margaret Ater, Faye Fausnaugh, Mary Stein, Ethel Boyer, Bessie Radcliff, Helen Valentine, Hazel Harvey, Blanche Justice, Lois Lifebure, Helen Eaton, Cathryn Hawks, Bess Good, Marvinne Dudleson, Thelma O'Hara, Magdalene Fee, Wylma Wardell, Ellen Camp, Bernice Lutz, Randolph Wolfe.

Charley Carter, Helen Newlon, Christine Neff, Alton Stonerock, Louise Caudill, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Skinner, Dorothy Smith, Erma Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bolin, Mrs. Edwin Bach, Eunice Shy, Robert Brooks and Fannie Brooks.

Citizen Band Club Prepares Flowers For Mother's Day

Flower arrangements in bud vases were made by members of Roundtown Citizen Band Club during the Friday evening meeting in the Red Cross building.

The vases holding carnations and baby's breath were presented to mothers of members and to shut-ins. A vase was taken to Paul Davis who had been a patient in a VA Hospital.

Members were reminded to bring gifts to Irma Iles or take directly to the Treasure Island table for the React Jamboree on Sunday at Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

Members brought food for a basket which was won by Yvonne Adams and the door prize was awarded to Irma Iles.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Irma Iles and Yvonne Adams. Others present were Marveen Young, Ruth Andrews, Patty Reed and Samantha, and Mildred and Pauline Davis.

For the June 9th meeting Norma and Sharon Eyerman will serve refreshments and Sue Lockard will be in charge of entertainment. The July meeting will be held in the home of Ruth Andrews, 135 W. High St. Homemade ice cream will be provided by Mildred and Pauline Davis. Bathing suits will be modeled by Marveen Young.

Guild Schedules Luncheon Meeting

Berger Hospital Guild 13 has scheduled a luncheon for 12:30 p.m. Friday at Pickaway Arms.

If you are growing a pot of oregano on your sunniest window sill, remember that it does not yield its flavor when fresh. Dry sprigs of the herb as you pick them and use those in cooking.

Ruppert Murder Trial Set July 16

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)— James Ruppert, 41, is scheduled to go on trial July 16 for the murders of 11 members of his family Easter Sunday.

Butler County Common Pleas Judge Fred B. Cramer set the date Tuesday after declaring the unemployed draftsman competent to participate in his own defense.

Four experts called by the prosecution testified at the two day sanity hearing that Ruppert could stand trial. The defense offered no witnesses but said a decision would be made shortly on whether to seek a change of venue or ask for a three-judge panel instead of a jury.

Judge Cramer said the presence of mental illness does not indicate a person is incompetent to stand trial. Cramer also commented that his decision in the sanity hearing had nothing to do with Ruppert's mental condition on the day he was arrested at his mother's home.

The hearing was set after Ruppert pleaded not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity. He is charged with 11 counts of aggravated murder which could mean the death penalty should he be convicted as charged.

The victims included his mother, brother and sister-in-law and eight nieces and nephews.

Cincinnati psychiatrist Robert McDevitt testified that Ruppert was able to stand trial, but that he was suffering from an emotional disorder known as paranoid psychosis.

McDevitt said Puppert had felt for about 10 years that there was a plot against him locally and around the state.

Dr. Howard Sokolof, consultant with the Butler County Forensic Psychiatric Center, testified that Ruppert could recall all the events of his past life up to the time the charges were filed against him.

A Dayton, Ohio psychologist, Dr. Victory Thaler, said tests indicated Ruppert had feelings of low self-esteem, persecution and self doubt.

He described Ruppert as a "paranoid personality" and said in his opinion Ruppert was suffering from a mental illness: "something of a relatively long duration."

Dr. Daniel Thomas, also of Dayton, said Ruppert was suffering from no mental illness at all.

Accident Under OSP Investigation

A two-car accident which resulted in injury to both drivers is still under investigation this morning by the State Highway Patrol.

According to Sgt. C. E. Gross, a car driven by William H. VanHorn, 54, Kingston was struck by a vehicle driven by Mrs. Lorene Moore, 36, 535 Mowrer Road. VanHorn received a visible injury and Mrs. Moore, a claimed injury. Both were taken to Berger Hospital for treatment.

The accident occurred at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday on Orr Road, 1.2 miles south of the Route 23 junction.

VanHorn was traveling southbound on Orr Road and Mrs. Moore was going in the opposite direction. The man started to make a left turn into a farm and moved directly into the path of Mrs. Moore.

She was unable to stop and struck the VanHorn vehicle in front spinning it around so that it faced north. The Moore vehicle came to rest on the grass berm, also facing north.

No citations have been made at this time.

Noise Project Cost Too High?

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Aviation experts meeting at National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) Lewis Research Center here were told Tuesday that a center project to reduce the noise level of jet engines might cost too much for government adoption.

The Lewis modification project brought noise levels under federal noise regulations, said Lewis engineer Robert W. Schroeder. However, he added, the cost would be between $2 and $4 billion dollars.

A spokesman for the Federal Aviation Administration said the agency favors an acoustic treatment on jet engines which would cost about $7 million.

More than 500 aviation experts are attending the two day conference at Lewis.

Middletown Indian Statue Slated For Shipment West

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— An Iowa native is ready to ship his massive steel replica of the Indian Chief War Eagle which will be dedicated to the war leader July 4.

Peter Rudokas, an Armco Steel Corp. artist, submitted a plan to Woodbury County, Iowa officials three years ago to replace the small stone marker to War Eagle who died in 1851.

After much negotiation, Rudokas' plan was selected and he had the 16 foot high, 2,400 pound statue assembled in weathering steel. The steel will remain shiny for at least 10 years and is virtually vandal proof.

Rudokas said he remembered hunting near the gravesite as a boy. The place was continually vandalized, he recalled.

Rudokas said the statue will be placed on the gravesite in what will be the new War Eagle Park atop a 250-foot bluff overlooking the Missouri and Big Sioux rivers.

The park board contest was won by a Sioux resident. But the board liked Rudokas' construction plan.

Rudokas, however, did not believe he had the welding experience. He built a cardboard model and the welding work was done by local welder Walter Deaton out of more than 100 pieces of cut steel.

The face was most the most difficult part for Deaton. He cut out and numbered over 40 pieces of metal to form the lines and angles of the chief's expression.

The figure stands extending a peace pipe with outstretched hands.

Upon arrival, local Indians plan consecration services at the gravesite where the chief, according to lore, was buried in a sitting position facing south.

Say Suspect Impersonated Police Officer

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Cincinnati police said they arrested a man Tuesday who was warned for impersonating a policeman hours before Sunday's death of an 18-year-old Lima woman.

A 27-year-old Reading man, James Thomas Curtis, was charged Tuesday with aggravated murder in the commission of rape and robbery of Suzanne Candler.

Police said a routine check by a rookie policeman led to the arrest of Curtis. Patrolman Al Ledbetter said he warned a man at 3:30 a.m. Sunday morning about driving a phony police car.

After Miss Candler's body was found in a nearby wooded area off Interstate 75, Ledbetter said he reported the earlier incident.

He said he later learned that a young Norwood woman was pulled over about 4:30 a.m. in the same area by a man driving a car equipped with a flashing red light.

He said the girl was not harmed, possibly because the man who stopped her spotted her boyfriend sleeping in the back seat of the car.

Curtis was arrested in 1974 for disorderly conduct and impersonating a policeman, police said.

Love Of Animals Carried Too Far?

LONGWOOD, Fla. (AP) — "When I was a little boy there were two things I wanted, a monkey and a horse," says Fred Wynn. "I still don't have a horse."

Wynn, 33, a department store security officer, has also acquired as pets a cougar, a coyote, a fox, skunks, opossums, snakes and a poodle. The poodle is the only one his wife will allow in their Central Florida home.

The animals are usually brought to Wynn sick and in poor condition after their owners have tired of them.

Cougie the cougar had a calcium deficiency before Wynn nursed him back to health. The fox was ill with tick fever and the coyote was sore-ridden and undernourished after being chained by her owners who then abandoned her.

The cougar, the coyote, the fox and

Might Join London Bridge

LONDON (AP) — The famous London chapel of Methodist pioneer John Wesley could be shipped to the United States if British Methodists cannot restore it, suggests the Rev. A. Stanley Jones of Doncaster, Yorkshire.

Despite an appeal to Americans to contribute to the cost of renovating the 18th-century building in City Road, London, Methodists are still uncertain the job can be done. In a letter to the Methodist Recorder weekly, Mr. Jones said that the money raised in the U.S. might be used to transport the building to America so that it can be reconstructed at a suitable center there, as was done with London Bridge.

However, another Methodist minister, the Rev. Courtney Johns, wrote that the chapel "is a part of our English heritage and should be preserved as such."

The color cerise is cherry or moderate red.

Wynn's poodle now romp together in a pen in the backyard of his Longwood home, set on a 75-by 150-foot lot. Wynn leases them for walks around the neighborhood.

Wynn's wife, Linda, said it costs about $25 a week to feed the animals. "I like dogs, but the other animals took a little getting used to," she said. "Only the dog is allowed in the house."

Wynn says that once a wild animal has been raised as a pet, it should not be set free again because it does not know how to fend for itself.

"It won't be afraid of man," he said. "If it goes up to a home seeking food, the housewife will scream and her husband will get a two-by-four and club it to death."

Wynn spends his spare time making appearances at local schools and hospitals with his menagerie.

He said snakes are the most popular with young children.

"Children aren't afraid of them at all," he said, draping a muscular boa constrictor around his 2-year-old son's shoulders. "But adults are scared of them."

Deaf Children Set For Capital Trip

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — How do you tell a deaf child that the Washington Monument is 555 feet tall?

The answer for Petterson elementary school teacher Debra Root is to take her seven deaf students to Washington D.C. and show them.

"The word 'distance' is not concrete, not something that you can hold onto," said Miss Root, 23, who will visit the capital May 29.

"It's strange but most deaf children say something is 'just far away,' rather than speak in terms of feet or miles," she said.

Her class of 10-year-olds will go to Washington in a minibus with a tank of gas. It's up to her and the children to raise $200 needed for the four-day trip.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers. (Q) What should I do if I move before my refund comes?

(A) Leave a forwarding address with the post office so that the refund can be delivered to your new address. Failure to do this has delayed the refunds of many taxpayers until a current address could be obtained.

(Q) I got married last December. Can my wife and I file a joint return for 1974?

(A) Yes, if you are married on the last day of your tax year, the IRS considers you as married for the entire year. So, you can file a joint return with your wife for 1974, but neither of you can be claimed as a dependent on the return of another taxpayer.

(Q) I rent out some land to a farmer nearby. Should I include the rent payments I receive as farm or rental income?

(A) Report the rent payments you receive on your land as rental income on Schedule E and attach it to your Form 1040 when you file. Unless you materially participate in the business of farming, the rents you receive are not considered farm income.

(Q) My wife and I are filing separate returns. Can I itemize while she takes the standard deduction?

(A) No. Married couples filing separate returns must handle their deductions the same way. If one itemizes deductions, the other must also itemize. Married couples filing separately must also take the same type of standard deduction. If one takes the standard deduction, both must take it.

Fremont's Water High In Chloroform

CHICAGO (AP) — A survey made by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has shown that the drinking water in Fremont, Ohio, has the highest level of chloroform of the 83 Mid-west cities tested.

The level in Fremont was 366 parts per billion, the EPA said. Other Ohio cities among those with the 10 highest readings were Bowling Green, Warren, Cincinnati and Piqua.

Toledo was 15th, Berea 16th, Columbus 21st, Portsmouth 32nd and East Liverpool 52nd.

The study, made in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin, said communities with the highest levels of organic chemical pollution draw supplies from heavily polluted rivers.

Cincy Vice Mayor Faces August Trial

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Cincinnati Vice Mayor William Chenault will face trial Aug. 18 on charges of embezzlement and theft in office.

The trial date was set Tuesday by Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge William S. Mathews. Mathews also disqualified himself from hearing the case citing his past friendship with Chenault.

Nearly all communities with high levels of contamination get their drinking water from rivers. Of 25 cities listed with the lowest contamination, 12 take their water from the Great Lakes and eight from deep wells.

An EPA spokesman said the widespread use of chlorine to kill bacteria leads to formation of some of the organic chemicals. With the exceptions of chloroform and arsenic, the chemicals found should not be considered an immediate health hazard, the spokesman said.

Chloroform is one of the chemicals being tested by the National Cancer Institute as a possible cause of cancer, but EPA officials stressed that there is no immediate cause for alarm.

The survey concluded: "While trace organics in drinking water are an important problem, which deserves investigation, the situation today is not a crisis to be met with fear and precipitous action."

Chloroform was found in 95 per cent of the water tested.

William Fairless, chief of EPA's regional testing lab in Chicago, said the danger level of chloroform has not yet been evaluated.

The Midwest survey supplements a national 80-city study whose results were announced last month by Russell Train, EPA director. He said drinking water in 79 of those 80 cities contained chemicals suspected of causing cancer.

"Over-all," said Fairless, "the Midwest study did not produce anything exciting. But the results do outline some problems and give EPA a better idea of drinking water than we had before."

The discovery of arsenic levels up to 2,000 parts per billion in water from two of 15 deep wells serving Kokomo, Ind., "really came as a surprise," said Fairless.

He said the EPA recommended a standard of 50 parts per billion for arsenic. The report said that, with proper treatment and blending, Kokomo has been able to maintain arsenic content at a safe level.

Recruiting Office at 210 South Court Street.

This is a reminder that young men turning 18-years-old no longer are required to register during the 60 day period commencing 30 days prior to their birthday. The requirement was withdrawn as of midnight April 1, 1975 by means of a proclamation signed by President Gerald R. Ford changing Selective Service registration procedures for 18-year-old men.

Ohio Selective Service Director Paul A. Corey reminds all 18-year-old men that this action does not terminate the legal requirement to register, but merely changes the procedures by which registration will be accomplished.

Cedar Point Sets Indoor Attractions

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Cedar Point, an outdoor entertainment center here, goes indoors for two attractions this season.

Visitors will view a dramatic motion picture on what is billed as "the world's largest theater screen" and can watch wild animals under a unique new modern circus tent on Safari Island.

In 1974, Cedar Point drew a record 2.76 million persons, said Robert L. Munger, president.

The price of admission has increased 75 cents this year to $7 for adults and $6 for children 4-11.

New procedures are being developed, and will be announced by the President later this year. The change was effected to reduce the cost of maintaining a Selective Service System in support of the all-volunteer military force.

If you have any questions call State Headquarters 614-469-7380 or your area Selective Service Office at 614-469-5722.

Former Ohioan Killed In Nevada

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A casino employee who was a native of Steubenville, Ohio, was killed in what appeared to be a robbery, police said Tuesday.

The body of Edward Anthony Buccieri, 52, was found in his car in the parking lot of Caesars Palace Hotel late Monday night. Police said Buccieri had been shot once in the head with a small-caliber weapon.

"Robbery is a possibility," said Lt. Beecher Avants. "We haven't definitely established a motive yet. We're keeping an open mind."

Buccieri, a floorman in the "21" pit at the club, had been employed at the hotel since it opened in 1967, hotel officials said.

L.A. Blanks Cards, 5-0

By BERT ROSENTHAL
AP Sports Writer

Even though the Chicago Cubs have the best winning percentage in the major leagues, Burt Hooton says he would rather be with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The rejuvenated Hooton, obtained by the Dodgers from the Cubs on May 2 after a dismal start this season, showed his gratitude toward his new club Tuesday night, allowing only two hits in pitching Los Angeles to a 5-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. Hooton was ecstatic over his sparkling performance and the confidence the Dodgers have shown in him.

"As soon as I got here (with the Dodgers), I had a reversal of attitude," he said. "Maybe the Cubs have a winning attitude now (they finished in last place in 1974, but now lead the National League East with a 19-9 record), and I admire what they're doing, but it just really didn't sink in with me. The thing is it's a whole new start."

While Hooton was shacking the Cardinals, Jerry Reuss of the Pittsburgh Pirates and rookie Tom Underwood of the Philadelphia Phillies also were pitching shutouts. Reuss stopped the San Diego Padres 2-0 on three hits and Underwood hand-cuffed the Cincinnati Reds 4-0 on six hits.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Cubs edged the Houston Astros 2-1, the Atlanta Braves whipped the Montreal Expos 9-4, and the San Francisco Giants and New York Mets were rained out.

Hooton walked only one, struck out seven and faced just 29 batters—two over the minimum. The only hits off him were Ted Sizemore's double in the fourth and Luis Melendez' single in the ninth.

Jimmy Wynn drove in three Los Angeles runs with a homer and a single, and Rick Auerbach singled in two runs.

Pirates 2, Padres 0
Reuss, in pitching his third straight complete game, struck out 12—his career high.

Frank Taveras, hitting only .111, drove in the Pirates' first run with a triple. Reuss scored the second on Manny Sanguillen's sacrifice fly after leading off the eighth with a single.

Phillies 4, Reds 0
Underwood, bombed for six runs in one-third of an inning by Cincinnati in his major league debut last Aug. 19, gained revenge against the Reds by striking out nine batters for his second shutout of the season.

Right fielder Mike Anderson helped save Underwood's shutout with two outstanding fielding plays and Greg Luzinski smashed his seventh homer of the season.

Cubs 2, Astros 1
The Cubs scored their first run in the third inning on a balk by Houston pitcher Doug Koniczny, then broke a 1-1 tie in the eighth on Bill Madlock's single, a walk, a wild pitch by Koniczny and a passed ball by Milt May.

Unbeaten Steve Stone, with ninth-inning relief from Oscar Zamora, won his fifth game.

Braves 9, Expos 4
Earl Williams drove in four Atlanta runs with a single, double and forceout as the Braves saddled Dave McNally with his fourth consecutive loss. Williams' two-run single and Mike Lum's two-run triple highlighted a six-run, fifth inning uprising.

Stoutsville LL Meets

The Stoutsville Little League will meet 7 p.m. Thursday in the school cafeteria. Parents of ball players are urged to attend the meeting.

Tribe Edges Minnesota; Wins Tilt 3-2

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Rookie Dennis Eckersley didn't have a spot on Cleveland's major league roster less than two months ago, but now the 20-year-old fireballing reliever is carving a big reputation around the American League.

"He impressed me in spring training and he's making more of a believer of me every time out," said Indians' Manager Frank Robinson. "He's been something."

Eckersley snuffed out a budding Minnesota rally in the seventh inning and retired the Twins' in order the final two innings to preserve a 3-2 Cleveland victory for Fritz Peterson Tuesday night.

"I used my slider mostly," said Eckersley, who was at San Antonio in the Texas League last year. "I need a little more time than some of the guys to get ready, but that's because I'm not used to relieving after being a starter all my life."

Eckersley fanned the final four Minnesota batters and ran his string of innings to 14 without allowing an earned run.

"I think the pitcher has an advantage when it's the first time he's against a hitter," said Minnesota's Larry Hise. "But, I think that kid is going to have the advantage for a long time with the stuff he has."

Kentucky Rips Pacers; Wins 120-94

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — "We just played a stinking ballgame."

The assessment came from Indiana Coach Bobby Leonard after his Pacers fell apart Monday night and lost to Kentucky 120-94 in the first game of the American Basketball Association playoff championship.

"We just gotta do everything better or we won't be around too long," said Leonard. "Our rebounding was terrible, our ball-handling was terrible and our defense was terrible."

Game 2 in the best-of-seven series will be played here Thursday before the clubs move on to Indianapolis.

Although Kentucky was impressive in putting away the Pacers, Coach Hubie Brown predicted "it won't be as easy next time."

One of the big differences, said Brown, was Artis Gilmore, who contributed 26 points for the Colonels before he was lifted with six fouls.

"If you've watched us all year long," said Brown, "you know we usually keep Gilmore in no matter how many fouls he has. But we gambled, we were up by 10 points."

Circleville Blanks Teays Valley, 5-0

Biff Bumgarner turned in a fine three-hit pitching performance and slammed a pair of doubles and a single to lead Circleville to a 5-0 win over visiting Teays Valley Tuesday.

The strong Tiger righthander fanned eight and didn't issue a walk as he went all the way. Teays Valley loaded the bases in the fourth inning with two out but Bumgarner got the hitter and then retired the next nine men he faced to kill any hopes the Vikings had for a rally.

Mark Messick handled the pitching duties for the Vikings. He gave up nine hits, walked one and struck out three.

The Tigers tallied a single run in the second inning when Perry Hoskins walked and scored on a two-base throwing error.

Four big runs went onto the scoreboard for the Tigers in the bottom of the third. Bumgarner cracked a double and raced home on a single by Pat McNaughton, Randy Thomas reached on an error and both runners crossed the plate on a line drive single by Phil Roll. An error by the Vikings allowed Roll to score the fifth run of the game.

In addition to Bumgarner's pair of doubles and single, Roll blasted a long triple and two singles while Pat McNaughton, Perry Hoskins and Doug McGone each slashed a single for the winners.

Terry Southers slammed two singles and Ron Bumgarner rapped a one-bagger to account for the three Teays Valley hits.

There was some fine defensive play on both sides especially by Circleville's Perry Hoskins and Chuck Glitt of the Vikings.

The Vikings are now 16-8 for the season and 6-3 in Metropolitan League play.

Circleville has an overall record of 9-7 and 6-5 in South Central Ohio League action.

Braves Lose 7-1 Tilt To Bishop Flaget

A big third inning for Chillicothe Bishop Flaget added up to a 7-1 defeat for the Logan Elm Braves baseball team Tuesday on the winner's diamond.

The Braves scored their only run in the fifth inning on a pair of walks, a single by Jeff Reichelderfer and an error. They were able to get only three hits off Bishop Flaget lefty Mavis who went all the way, fanning four and walking four.

The Panthers big third came as a result of two walks, four singles and two errors.

The starter on the mound for Logan Elm was Steve Marshall. He was relieved by Derek Morris in the fourth. They fanned five and walked six, allowing seven hits.

Monday the Braves host Newark Catholic and Tuesday they have a rematch with Bishop Flaget. LE is now 17-4 on the season while the Panthers have a 10-5 record.

Drawing will be held tonight for the Pickaway County tournament scheduled May 24 at Logan Elm. Teams participating in the tournament will be Circleville, Teays Valley, Westfall and the host school.

Foster Sees Door Open To Stardom

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — George Foster is 26 years old and knows he's at the point in his profession where he has to make it, or break it.

"The door's now open. I gotta go through," concludes Foster.

The door opened for Foster a few weeks ago when Pete Rose moved to third base, vacating a full-time outfield position.

"This is what I've been striving for," he said. "But getting to play isn't all of it. It's also playing well."

There have been times when Foster thought he'd never have the chance to prove himself. He recalls his early days with the San Francisco Giants. "They had Ken Henderson, Bobby Bonds and Willie Mays in the outfield," Foster explained. "I'd play regularly all through the spring training. Then, the season would start and I wouldn't play at all."

"It really depressed me. I wasn't really myself. I couldn't get myself together."

It seemed that Foster would welcome a trade to another club, but the young ballplayer, with his home and most of his friends in California, was unhappy about being traded to Cincinnati in 1971.

"Maybe I was feeling sorry for myself or maybe I was mad at the world," he said. "You get traded and you think about the team not wanting you. Somehow you don't think about your new team and how it wanted you."

Since the trade, Foster has gradually adopted Cincinnati and the Reds. Now, he's out to prove that he should be playing fulltime.

"What I'm trying to do is reach my potential," he said. "In the past, I was always competing against someone instead of competing with myself."

The Reds maintain that if Foster reaches his potential, he can be one of the league's better home run hitters.

"I don't know what my potential is. No one does, only the man upstairs," Foster concluded. "But you certainly don't know how good you can be unless you go out and work hard and try."

Ryan, Angels Beat Yanks, 3-0

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

Nolan Ryan pitched nine innings, Jim Bibby pitched five and Ken Holtzman faced only one batter but all came away with victories Tuesday night.

Ryan pitched six hitless innings and finished with his sixth career two-hitter in the California Angels' 3-0 victory over the New York Yankees. Bibby allowed singles to the first two batters and then knocked off the next 15 in the Texas Rangers' 5-0 triumph over the Milwaukee Brewers which was called in the fifth inning because of rain.

And Holtzman, who had a 1-4 record in eight starts despite a fine 2.35 earned run average, struck out Carl Yastrzemski to end a Boston rally in the fifth inning and was credited with the win in the Oakland A's 9-5 triumph over the Red Sox when Joe Rudi's tie-breaking home run in the bottom of the fifth made him the pitcher of record.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2, the Kansas City Royals outlasted the Detroit Tigers 8-7 and the Cleveland Indians nipped the Minnesota Twins 3-2.

Ryan flirted with a record-tying fourth career no-hitter until Bobby Bonds broke the spell with a leadoff single in the seventh, the Yankees' only clean hit. Ryan, who joined Oakland's Vida Blue and Don Sutton of Los Angeles as the only seven-game winners in the majors, struck out seven and walked five.

Doc Medich matched scoreless innings with Ryan until he walked Bruce Bochte with two out in the sixth and Joe Lahoud and Dave Chalk followed with singles for a 1-0 lead. An inning later, Tom Egan's triple and singles by Morris Nettles and Bochte made it 3-0. Billy Smith lashed a two-run double in the eighth.

Rangers 5, Brewers 0

Cesar Tovar and Jim Spencer cracked first-inning home runs off Jim Slaton to back Bibby's pitching. A heavy thunderstorm hit Arlington Stadium with two out in the bottom of the fifth and the umpires called it after a one-hour, 31-minute wait.

A's 9, Red Sox 5

Rudi hit his fourth home run of the season in the fifth inning to break a 4-4 tie and Billy Williams added a three-run shot in the seventh. Holtzman made a rare relief appearance and struck out Carl Yastrzemski, the only batter he faced, to halt a four-run Boston rally in the fifth, capped by Rick Burleson's three-run double.

Orioles 3, White Sox 2

Tommy Davis' run-scoring double in the fifth inning broke a 2-2 tie and the Orioles went on to end Jim Kaat's two-season 12-game winning streak behind the four-hit pitching of Ross Grimsley.

Royals 8, Tigers 7

Kansas City jumped on Lerrin LaGow for five runs in the second inning, one on an off-the-roof homer by Tony Solaita, and survived a four-run Detroit rally in the ninth. Solaita, who singled home a run in the fourth, led off the second with his towering homer.

KC starter Al Fitzmorris was working on a two-hitter until the seventh when Nate Colbert hit a two-run homer. Pinch hitter Dan Meyer drilled a three-run homer off Doug Bird in the ninth.

Indians 3, Twins 2

Rookie reliever Dennis Eckersley

Phils Shut Out Cincy Reds, 4-0

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rookie Tom Underwood, bombed for six runs in his major league debut at Cincinnati last year, got his revenge against the Reds Tuesday night by striking out nine batters for his second shutout of the season.

"Baseball's not a game where you hold a grudge," explained the left-hander after the Philadelphia Phillies 4-0 victory. "But it's very satisfying to beat the Reds."

Felders Mike Anderson and Garry Maddox preserved the shutout with outstanding plays, and Greg Luzinski smashed his seventh homer of the season.

Joe Morgan led off for the Reds in the third with a deep shot into right field. But Anderson somehow caught up with it and trapped it in a desperate backhand leap against the fence.

"When Morgan hit it, I was sure it was going out," marvelled Underwood later. "It was a high slider, the same kind of pitch Morgan hit for a grand slam homer off me last year. I don't know how Mike got there. I almost couldn't watch."

Anderson later reached over a wire fence to grab a foul off Pete Rose when the bases were loaded.

"It happens every time I pitch," said the 21-year-old Underwood. "Usually it is the infielders who bail me out but those guys out there (the outfielders) can make leather pop, too."

Maddox literally outran a drive of Rose's bat to left center and Larry Bowa made no effort to conceal his admiration.

"I couldn't believe the ball Maddox caught," said Bowa. "Rose hit it on the trademark and I didn't think Garry had a ghost of a chance for it. But he just outran it."

The Phillies had little success against Reds' pitcher Garry Nolan until the third inning when they used a break for their first run. Reds left-fielder Merv Rettenmund slipped on the wet field and a fly by Anderson fell for a triple. Dave Cash singled to right to score the Phillies first run.

Luzinski's homer came in the fourth shut off a seventh-inning Minnesota rally and Cleveland capitalized on a unique bunt double to defeat the Twins.

Jack Brohamer laid down a hard bunt past pitcher Vic Albury attempting to sacrifice in the third inning. Minnesota second baseman Rod Carew overran the bunt and Brohamer sprinted to second for a double with Charlie Spikes, who had walked, going to third. Frank Duffy doubled to give the Indians a 2-0 lead.

when he reached out for a 3-2 pitch and slammed it to the base of the scoreboard in left center field. Cash, Bowa, and Mike Schmidt also picked up RBI's.

Anderson added another run, and in the sixth inning Maddox walked, stole second and came in on a single by Schmidt.

"There was no revenge motive or anything like that," said Underwood, whose worse moment came in the fourth inning when the Reds collected three singles and a base on balls.

"It was nice to do a good job against a team like the Reds after what they did to me," he added.

Sportsmen Fight For Fee Interest

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An estimated $450,000 a year in Ohio sportsmen's license fee money is being spent illegally, a lawsuit to be filed in Columbus this week will charge.

The action seeks to halt the practice and recover an estimated $6 million allegedly mispent by state treasurers since 1949.

The Wildlife Legislative Fund, a recently chartered group which is filing the lawsuit in Franklin County Common Pleas Court, said it was prepared to press its claim to the Supreme Court if necessary.

In dispute is the interest on fishing, hunting and trapping license fees, said Jim Hanson, legal counsel to the independent, nonprofit legislative fund, which has headquarters at 50 W. Broad St., Columbus.

Laws enacted in 1949 state that "no funds derived from hunting, fishing and trapping licenses shall be spent for anything other than hunting, fishing and trapping purposes" as defined by the state.

The Division of Wildlife is financed almost exclusively by sportsmen's fees, Hanson said.

Annual income from the fees is routinely turned over to the state treasurer for investing until allocated to the division, usually about a year later.

Interest from the investments, however, since 1949 has been deposited in the state's general fund for non-wildlife use, Hanson said.

Hanson contended the law's stipulation that the "no funds derived from" refers both to license fees and the interest they generate.

"Common sense tells you that," he said. "Why should sportsmen be charged a special fee that is used for some purpose over which they have no control and for which they already are taxed?"

Hanson also argued the legal point that license fees are held in trust by the state treasurer, who acts as trustee on behalf of the wildlife division.

It is common law interpretation that interest on trust funds is part of the principal and, therefore, must be used for purposes specified by the trust, he said.

James Glass, chairman of the Wildlife Legislative Fund, said his group turned to the courts when it became obvious that three bills to limit interest use to wildlife spending are going nowhere in the General Assembly.

Hanson does not expect a common pleas court hearing for several months. Appeals are almost certain, he said, and that process would take much longer, barring an out-of-court settlement which appears unlikely at this time.

"This is not one of those things where the sportsman is asking for something for nothing," Hanson said.

"The sportsman is paying for the wildlife programs of the state and everybody benefits from various public recreation opportunities, enforcement of the stream litter laws and educational programs open to everybody," he said.

"Why should the sportsman pay for all that and be required to make additional contributions to the state's general fund on top of it?" Hanson asked.

Glenn Cameron Near Contract With Bengals

CINCINNATI (AP) —Glenn Cameron, the Cincinnati Bengals' No. 1 football draft choice, admits he's "still listening" to offers from the rival World Football League but says he's "very close to an agreement" with Cincinnati.

AVOCADOS ARE VERSATILE

The avocado is an unusual fruit. It isn't sweet like most other fruits. Instead, it has a nut-like flavor and a rich, buttery texture. It doesn't look like what we expect fruits to look like and it can be used in soups, appetizers, main dishes, salads and desserts.

If you have never tried an avocado this would be a good week to buy one. Avocados are being featured in our produce departments this week.

Avocados are picked at maturity, but are not allowed to soften on the tree. To test for full ripeness, hold the avocado in the palm of your hand and press gently. Don't pinch avocados because they bruise easily. If the avocado "gives" it is ready to eat. Avocados shouldn't be eaten until they are soft.

Don't refrigerate avocados until they are soft. Leave them at room temperature until they are soft. A whole, ripe avocado can be stored in the refrigerator for more than a week.

Since avocados discolor quickly sprinkle with lemon juice, a weak solution of cider vinegar or a commercial product designed to prevent fruit from darkening when preparing them. Avocados contain about 12 percent of the Recommended Dietary Allowance (RDA) for Vitamin C and 14 percent for men and 7.8 percent for women of the RDA for iron.

The most familiar avocado dish is guacamole, a Mexican dip. Use a very soft avocado in this guacamole recipe.

- | | |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 Large Ripe Avocado | 1 Clove Garlic, Crushed |
| 2 Teaspoons Lemon Juice | 2 Tablespoons Mayonnaise |
| 1 Teaspoon Chili Powder | Salt |

Peel avocado and remove seed. Mash pulp completely. Add lemon juice and mix well. Add chili powder, garlic and mayonnaise. Season with salt to taste. Serve with corn chips or crackers.

Your Horoscope Television Schedule

The Circleville Herald, Wednesday May 14, 1975

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): You may have a desire to take off to "greener pastures" but think twice before leaping the fence. Your desire may not be based on logic.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): A fine day for artistic, family and social interests. In all things, capitalize on your general know-how and finesse to the hilt.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): An above-average day in certain areas; possibly trying in others. Meet all situations with equanimity. Don't anticipate difficulty; take whatever you meet in stride.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Another good day for launching new plans and projects. Of course, sensible precautions and complete understanding of your undertaking will be important.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Brace yourself for some opposition. Prepared, you can cope with it more easily, even outwit it.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): You have instinctive know-how in many areas, but may tend to get off the track now, unwisely go off on tangents. Be alert — and avoid.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): This day will be a far better one than you may anticipate at first. Be enthusiastic, but not hurried; resolute, but not obstinate. You have much to gain.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Plan your schedule in orderly fashion, lest things trivial or witless interject their time-wasting tunes. A day for concentrating on essentials — and HUMOR!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Quite unexpectedly you may find the solution to a difficult problem. Another's casual words could put you on the right track.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Group activity highly favored. Stars indicate now is the time for you to make some exciting new contacts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Give careful thought to financial affairs — not only business-wise but where your personal budget is concerned. Don't let more whim direct your purchase.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Present conditions may not warrant the expansion you have in mind. Go slow if conservative opposition arises.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with great charm, a deep sense of responsibility, love and understanding of your fellowman, a lively imagination and, above all, a tremendous appreciation for beauty — along with the talent to fit you for success in almost any of the arts. You also have a scientific bent but, here, it may best express itself in the fields of medicine, chemistry or physics. Your patience and your love of children make you well suited to the field of education, also, if you do not take up one of the arts — especially painting, writing, music or the theater — as a career, you are almost certain to adopt one or the other as an avocation. Birthdate of: James Mason and Joseph Cotton, film stars.

BLASS FASHION — A Bill Blass suit with slashed pockets and shawl for the layered look is displayed in showing of autumn collection in New York.

Jacques Piccard, using a bathyscaphe vehicle, reached a record 38,400 feet in 1960 to verify existence of sea life at this depth.

Sydney, Australia, has one of the finest harbors in the world with 250 miles of shoreline.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Television's annual back-pat festival, the national Emmy awards, kicks off here Thursday at 1:30 p.m. EDT on ABC-TV with a live, 90-minute awards show for achievement in daytime programs.

It'll be held on a Hudson River excursion boat and mark the second straight year daytime TV shows have had their own awards bash. On this go, 54 nominees are up for honors in 19 categories.

The festival resumes next Monday night on CBS-TV, when huzzahs for nighttime program efforts will be heard in a two-hour live show from Hollywood. Nearly 180 nominees will compete in 56 categories then.

At that time, achievement in sportscasting also will be honored. No less than 48 Emmy nominees are up for awards in three categories, 18 of the nominees in the "outstanding sports broadcaster" category.

According to the handout from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, one of them is "Howard Cosell" of ABC. Hmm.

Two changes have been made in this year's Emmy awarding, says Larry Stewart, the academy's national awards committee chairman.

One is that the Emmy awards for news, televised live the past two years, won't have a separate show again this year "unless there's a miracle and I don't expect that," he says. "Nobody's even discussed it."

The second is an end to the "super-Emmy" entertainment awards of last year. The awards declared the recipients the best over-all in such general categories as acting or directing.

The winners earlier had received Emmys for their acting or directing in such specific sub-categories as comedy, drama, variety and so on.

The super awards were dropped, Stewart said, because they created a hard-to-understand situation. "It was terrible," he said. "Nobody understood it and it confused the issue."

"Even the people who won weren't certain what they'd won."

He said a telecast honoring Emmy-winners in news and documentary shows may return next year, but was dropped this year to give the academy time to devise new voting procedures and simplify award categories.

Martin Essex Speaks On Fairfield JVS

"In our new super sophisticated society," said Essex, "we have rendered millions unemployed. We have some things to redesign in education. Our present educational methods are no longer adequate to train our young people for the future, and for jobs. Vocational education, as we have it in Ohio, is part of the massive redesigning."

That's how Dr. Martin Essex, State Superintendent of Education, summed up the position of vocational education in Ohio today. He was talking to more than 150 Fairfield-Lancaster industrial, business, civic and agricultural leaders during a recent breakfast at the Buccaneer Restaurant in Lancaster.

Commenting on the mandate of the State Legislature that every school district in Ohio must provide minimum vocational education standards by next September 1 or bus students to adjoining counties, he said: "I question whether you want to see your vocational education students assigned to other districts."

Fairfield is one of only several counties in the entire state which does not have at least one joint vocational school. Voters in the primary election this coming June 3 will be asked to approve a 3.8 mill, seven-year multipurpose levy to build and operate such a school to be located off Route 37 in the northeast section of Lancaster, close to the center of the county's population. The state of Ohio would pay 50 per cent of the total construction and operation cost.

Students of Fairfield's school districts have already been assigned to adjoining county schools in the event voters reject the levy. Liberty Union, Walnut and Bloom-Carroll are assigned to Newark (Licking County), Fairfield Union and Berne Union to Nelsonville (Athens County) and Amanda-Clearcreek to Kingston (Ross-Pickaway County).

This assignment means: the Fairfield School District pays its own money to bus students daily back and forth to the adjoining counties; pays the adjoining counties a "catch up" fee to pay for the buildings and equipment they've already got in operation; and pays these counties a continuous fee for instruction and for maintenance and operation of the adjoining schools.

Failure to pass the levy, or refusal to bus students to adjoining counties brings a final alternative. The State Department of Education will simply cut off all state monies to our local schools, thus essentially closing our school systems. With 93 per cent of the school districts in the state already meeting standards, the Ohio Legislature passed its mandate to give students of the non-complying seven per cent (including Fairfield) the same educational opportunities.

Deputy Sheriff Speaks To Moundbuilders Kiwanis

The Moundbuilders Kiwanis Club members had as guest speaker at the Tuesday morning meeting Bill Dountz, community relations officer for the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

Dountz discussed the "Neighborhood Watch Program", a program designed to get the public involved in helping deter crime.

Main points of the program are:

1. Check suspicious cars in the neighborhood, record license number and telephone the appropriate law enforcement agency;
2. Keep a record of model and serial numbers and identifying marks on personal property;
3. During vacations notify law enforcement agencies so they can check your home while you're away; stop mail and newspaper deliveries; make arrangements to keep your lawn mowed. A house that looks deserted is a perfect target for burglary experts.

The members of the club nominated Larry Lewis to represent Moundbuilders in the Pickaway County Cancer Society Bike-A-Thon to be held Saturday beginning at 11:30 a.m. at Ted Lewis Park.

Club members were reminded the Freedom Train will be in Columbus beginning May 22 at the Defense Construction Supply Center.

Visiting Kiwanians were Sam McIlvaine, Burl Wiggins, Marty Sharrett and Richard Rudy. Sam Dettra was a guest. The weekly best dressed award was unanimously voted to Sam McIlvaine.

Wallace Higgins will be the guest speaker at next Tuesday's meeting, 7 a.m. at Pickaway Arms.

Berger Hospital Honored By JCAH

Berger Hospital has been honored with a certificate of recognition by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAH) during National Hospital Week. The certificate, signed by John D. Porterfield, M.D. Director of the Joint Commission, reads as follows:

"During this National Hospital Week, May 11 through May 17, 1975, the Joint Commission takes special pleasure in recognizing your continuing commitment to the quality on patient care through voluntary accreditation. We proudly salute you as one of nearly 4800 accredited hospitals in the Nation who have chosen to strive to deliver the optimum in health service to the community."

Accreditation indicates that a facility has chosen to perform within professionally developed standards of the JCAH and that the facility has substantially complied with these standards. The standards, published as the "Accreditation Manual for Hospitals", set forth optimal achievable goals of excellence against which a facility can measure itself and be measured in turn by the Joint Commission's survey.

The JCAH's accreditation surveys are voluntary. Facilities have sought accreditation in furtherance of their pursuit of excellence and a higher quality of care.

In April, the month used for the May distribution, the state collected $94,393,380.31 in corporation taxes, $68,253,874.09 in sales taxes and $30,569,355.47 in income taxes.
